ART AT THE CENTRAL LIBRARY

SELF-GUIDED TOUR

Roy Arden, Ochre Boarding House, Vancouver BC, 1997

Vancouver Public Library (VPL) is currently displaying a selection of local art that reveals Vancouver's contribution to the international art world starting with an outburst of local talent in the 1960s, to the Vancouver leaders of the conceptualist movement of the 1970s, to the photo-conceptualists of the 1980s, ending with today's Indigenous art of resistance.

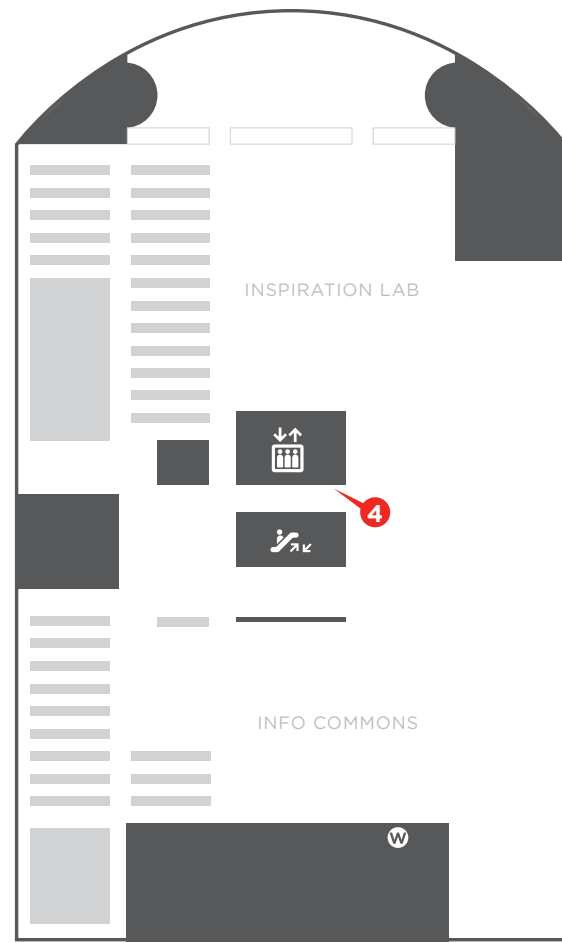

Use this guide as a map to find the art loaned from Canada Council's Art Bank at the Central Library of Vancouver Public Library.

For more information about all the art on display, including the City of Vancouver's Art Commissions and work at other VPL branches, please visit: vpl.ca/about/art-at-the-library
